

THE MESSAGE OF STEWARDSHIP

By RALPH S. CUSHMAN

This book has been written out of a deep desire to indicate more clearly the inestimable value of the stewardship message, by showing that the principle of stewardship underlies the entire message of the Old and New Testaments. The book is prepared for use in daily devotions and for classes in the study of stewardship. To the latter end the introductory section of each will assure additional help. Material for helps for class and individual study will be found at the close of each chapter, and special emphasis has been laid on the stewardship of business.

ADVENTURES IN STEWARDSHIP

By RALPH S. CUSHMAN and MARTHA F. BELLINGER

"It will be very useful to pastors and other Church workers who are urging the matter of stewardship in any of its phases to make a careful study of this little book. It is established upon things practical."

—The Christian Advocate.

PRAYER CALENDAR FOR 1923

PRICE 15c OR $1.50 PER DOZEN.

The 1923 Prayer Calendar is the most artistic yet published and a copy should be in every home in the church.

It contains the name of every Home and Foreign Mission worker of our Church and their place of service, also a brief outline of the activities of every Executive Agency of our Assembly.

It will stimulate interest and enlarge information if the workers are remembered daily in prayer as suggested in the Calendar.

that each one of the men, as classified above, in our Church, hold himself in readiness, with the approval of course of his Committee or Board, to go to any church assigned in his respective Synod on the above dates.

Plans will be worked out by which the Secretary of Stewardship in each Synod will know the men who have consented to serve, and he will make all assignments. It is the purpose of this Movement to enlist every available worker in our Church for the three Sundays prior to the Every-Member Canvass. There are about 200 men available, and if every one consents to serve we will reach at least 600 churches in our Assembly through their service. Since the Every-Member Canvass profits all causes, each man will charge his traveling expenses to the agency for which he works.

We have adopted a plan to have a service in every church in the Assembly on the first three Sundays of March, regardless of how small the church is, or how remote, or when it has stated services.

A personal letter is being sent to every man who belongs to one of the above classes, but should any one be omitted, let him regard this as a request, on the part of the Assembly's Stewardship Committee, to give his time.

Let us make this the most effective and far-reaching effort for the Every-Member Canvass that our Church has ever made.

The Assembly's Stewardship Committee.

M. E. Melvin,
General Secretary.

BANNER WINNERS FOR 1922.

R. E. Magill, Secretary.

The contest for the Presbyterian Banner, awarded for the largest offering per member for Sunday-school Extension, developed a keen spirit of friendly rivalry and resulted in a greatly enlarged interest in the work of Sunday-school Extension.

The reports indicate that there was an increase in the number of schools observing Rally Day, that a notable gain in enrollment was made, that plans were outlined for a better type of work for the coming year, and that the offering was larger than ever before.

A spirit of sacrificial giving was shown which indicates that our Sunday-school membership appreciate their privileges and that they wish to make similar blessings possible for the great multitude of spirituality destitute young people in the South.

While only one school in a Presbytery would win a banner all the contestants have a rich reward in the consciousness that they had a part in sending the Gospel message to those who need it most.

Our congratulations to the successful schools and our sincere thanks to all who had a part in the most successful Rally Day observance in the history of our Church.
